

Position Vacant

QAHC is a community based health promotion organisation which promotes the health of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender Queenslanders.

Health Promotion Officer (Sexual Health)

Full-time (38hrs/week) – based in Brisbane

Base Salary = $41,143 to $54,583

Salary Package (capped) = $47,000 to $62,500

+ 9% employer superannuation contribution

You will:

- Deliver a program of HIV & Hepatitis C prevention and sexual health promotion activity for gay and other msm in Brisbane, including outreach, event management, group work, resource development, telephone & online info and referral, events and promotions.
- Provide training and development for health and related community workers on issues relevant to gay and other msm, HIV, Hepatitis C and sexual health.

Info...

QAHC adheres to EEO principles and all applications will be assessed on merit. QAHC values the contribution of people with HIV/AIDS in the workplace and encourages people with HIV/AIDS to apply.

Reasonable travel expenses to interview will be reimbursed and relocation allowance paid for people moving town/interstate/.

For a copy of the application package phone (07) 3017 1777, email recruit@qahc.org.au or visit www.qahc.org.au/jobs

If you have any questions contact Paul Martin, General Manager on (07) 3017 1791 or 0407 376 540.

Applications close 4pm Monday 27th July 2009.